Employment Offer Letter

Human Resources · YourCompany

Dear candidate,

We are delighted to offer you a position at YourCompany. This letter sets out the main terms of your employment; the details are in the employment contract you will receive on your first day.

Position and start date

You will join the team named in your interviews, reporting to its manager, from the start date written on the next page.

Salary and benefits

Your yearly gross salary is paid monthly. You will also benefit from health insurance, 25 days of paid leave a year, a meal allowance and a yearly bonus based on your objectives.

Working time

You work 40 hours a week, with flexible hours agreed with your manager, and up to two days a week from home.

Trial period

The first three months are a trial period, during which either party may end the employment with one week of notice.

Initials

Acceptance

To accept this offer, sign this letter below. The offer is valid for 14 days. We look forward to working with you.

Start date

The candidate

Signature

Name

Date

For YourCompany, HR

Signature

Name

Date